

ARRL is the leading representation group for Amateur Radio operator in the US. Their restructuring plan should be accepted and they should be encouraged to continue and build a new band plan especially in the 2 meter area which needs a larger frequency separation to lower equipment cost of repeater operation...another words go to a standard 5 MHz separation. Thank you. Rod